Fish Skinners

Cutting with these skinners is a natural motion because the wrist stays straight and the forearm relaxed. Conventional knives tend to bend the wrist causing fatigue and uncomfortable cutting positions. The T-Shaped handle transfers force directly, providing greater cutting power and control. The shape of the handle also allows it to be secured between two fingers, enabling use of both hands without setting the knife down. Slipping is prevented with a rubberized handle made of Kraton®. Each model features a flexible blade with rearward serrations and a leather sheath. Suggested retail for each model $25.20.
